Anti-Smoot Petitions.

In presenting a number of petitions for the expulsion of Senator Smoot from the senate Mr. Daniel said: "The petitions concern the right of a senator to his seat. Nothing is officially known to the senate concerning this case, which is in committee, and I do not know how the signers of these petitions could pass upon the case without knowledge of the testimony. I present the petitions because the peo-ple have the right to send them, but not because I recognize the propriety

The senate accepted the amendments to the resolution authorizing the use of the pension building for the inaugural ball, which passed the measure.

Mr. Fulton called up the bill authorizing the payment of damages to American seal fishermen in Bering sea for injuries sustained prior to the arbitration of 1893, and the measure was debated at some length.

Mr. Foraker expressed the utmost sympathy with all the efforts to suppress pelagic sealing. He added that this practice was still followed, and it this practice was still followed, and it must be speedily stopped if the seals were not to be destroyed entirely.

Statehood Bill.

At 2 o'clock the bill was displaced by he statehood bill and Mr. Stewart ddressed the senate on the latter

Mr. Stewart presented an amendment to the bill providing for control of affairs in Indian Territory by a superintendent to be appointed by the president and paid a salary of $15,000 a year. He said the secretary of the interior had drafted a similar measure and read letter from that official saying legis-ation of this character is necessary.

The committee amendments to the statehood bill to which there was no objection were accepted, but many passed over with the understanding that they should have further consid-

Notice of Amendment.

Mr. Gorman gave notice of an amendment limiting the provision for the payment of 10 per cent in the $5,000,000 loan proposed for the benefit of the Oklahoma school fund.

Mr. Newlands urged the amendment of the bill so as to prevent the of the bill so as to prevent the mo-nopoly of desirable lands. He said no purchaser should be admitted to pur-chase more land than was necessary to support a family. The senate at 5 p. m. at into executive session and at 5:08 adjourned.

The advocates of a plan to admit the railroads and the packers declare that the admission does not mean that they will work against the interests of the stockmen, but the contrary; that the wider the scope of the organization the greater its power, and that differences will disappear in a community of interest. When the plan of reorganization which will admit the railroads and packers was proposed at the convention to day it was referred to a committee of three from each industry affiliated in any way with the raising of livestock. The committee met as a whose tonight The advocates of a plan to admit the Fireman at Daly-West Mill Has Narrow Escape.

Park City, Jan, 10.—John Hilton, one of the firemen at the Daily-West mill, was painfully, though not seriously, injured last evening while enroute to work at the mill in the tunnel. With some other employes of the company, Hilton was going to work on a troiley, and had reached a point beyond No. 8 Ontario shaft. The whole crew were on the lookout for the ore train, and Hilton, in looking ahead, got his head out too far and it struck against the timber. The force of the blow stopped the troiley and threw Hilton off. The injured man was brought to town and his injuries dressed, the chief of which are a badly cut nose and forehead. He will be able to get back to his work in a very few days.

Skin Fair as a Lily with no Scar to Recall Awful Sore Writes Mother.

"I herewith write out in full the beginning and end of that terrible disease, eczema, which caused my babe untold suffering and myself many sleepless

"My babe was born seemingly a fair, healthy child, but when she was three weeks old a swelling appeared on the back of her head, and in course of time broke. It did not heal but grew worse, and the sore spread from the size of a dime to that of a dollar. I used all kinds of remedies that I could think of, but nothing seemed to help; in fact, it grew worse. Her hair fell out where the sore was, and I feared it would never grow again. It continued until my aged father came on a visit, and when he saw the baby he told me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment right away.

"To please him I did so, and to my surprise by their use the sore began to heal over, the hair grew over it, and to-day she has a nice head of hair, her skin is as fair as a lify, and she has no scar left to recall that awful sore, and it is over eight months and no sign of its returning."
Mrs. Wm. Ryer, Elk River, Minn.

"Cure permanent." So writes Mrs. Ryer. Feb. 25, 1903, six years later: "Your letter of the 19th inst. received, asking in regard to the cure of my baby some six years ago. Well, the disease has never returned to her head which at that time was a solid sore on top and down the back. Once or twice since then a patch has come on her hand near the wrist, but it finally disappeared siter proper treatment with Cuticura."
